

I'll Dig My Claws

I'll dig my claws into your brain
I'll dig my claws into your brain

Your perception, your actions, my threads of control
I make your neurons fire, click, buy and scroll

Everything you have, give me everything you have

I'll dig my claws into your brain
And I will make your neurons fire - Fire! Fire!

With faith's unseen hands, you buy, you consume, you follow my commands, you keep firing the boom

Your perception, your actions, my threads of control
I generate resentment and anger in your soul

Everything you have, give me everything you have

I'll dig my claws into your brain
And I will make your neurons fire - Fire! Fire!
